

The Macao Special Administrative Region Government
Identification Services Bureau

6 August 2007

Announcement

The Electronic Macao SAR Resident Cards Replacement Exercise, in accordance with the ID numbers, has been completed on 9 February 2007. The former Macao Resident Cards will become invalid starting from 8 August 2007. For holders who are still possessing their former Macao Resident Cards, they can make an appointment for resident card replacement by phone (28370888) or at our service counter located on 1st Floor, China Plaza, N.°804, Avenida Praia Grande or our web side: www.dsi.gov.mo. For queries, please contact us at 28370777.

For holders of the former resident cards who reside outside of Macao need not to return to Macao for resident card replacement before 8 August 2007. Their old resident cards can still be used for applications of the Macao SAR travel documents and new resident cards replacement after 8 August 2007. Thus, the above-mentioned holders can have their resident cards replaced upon their return to Macao at their convenience.

Attention:

1. Electronic Macao SAR Resident Card replacement is mandatory.
2. For electronic resident card replacement application, the original of the former resident card should be presented. If the applicant is under the age of 18, either one of the parents must accompany the applicant and the photocopies of both parents' ID cards have to be presented. If applicant's marital status is changed, the documentary proof must be produced.
3. Applicant can either submit one recent 1½" colour photo with white background or have live-captured photo to be printed on the card surface. (Note: Live-captured photo may not be necessarily satisfactory)
4. Location: Avenida Praia Grande, No.804, Edificio China Plaza, 1 andar
Application Time: Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.
Collection Time: Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.
